Looking for the dream job in a very beautiful and modern city in China? Now is your chance to apply for that position. China is a country on the move and its vibrant culture will leave you breathless! You will find yourself teaching English in a culture that is very different from your own--bringing your own culture into the classroom through your lesson plans.

Chinese Community Network (CCN) educational and culture Program (ECP) offers reputable international exchange programs. CCN is looking for dynamic, student-oriented people to teach English in China. If you are passionate about your students' development and invested in your own professional growth, we have many positions available for ESL teachers in major Chinese cities and other professional teaching positions.

We are authorized and certified by the China National Bureau of Foreign Experts Affairs, a governing body that manages certain educational and cultural organizations that promote understanding and exchange. For consideration, please send your resume and cover letter to teacher@usaccn.com. To apply online, please visit the following link for more information:
